

FRATERNAL ORDER of POLICE
E. B. JERMYN LODGE #2

The Scranton Fraternal Order of Police E.B. Jermyn Lodge #2 in cooperation with the State FOP and Attorney General Kathleen Kane delivered toys, coats, and food to the Head Start children at 1729 Pittston Avenue in Scranton.

This Fraternal Order of Police program is being held for the first time in Northeastern Pennsylvania, following the lead of chapters in Philadelphia and several other regions. The Scranton chapter headed by Det. Sgt. Robert Martin, and assisted by the James Harrity, Christmas Program Director, and Vice-President Roosevelt Poplar of the State FOP organization, stated that this will set the beginning of a tradition by the local E.B. Jermyn FOP Lodge, and Scranton Police Officers.

Sgt. Martin stated that they too often see the troubled part and people of the city and that they are greatly looking forward to the smiles of the children and the families, as well as helping to establish a positive relationship with the children of the community.
