15	MR. ROGAN: Yes.	15	heavily business corridor I just, you know,
16	MS. MARCIANO: Mr. Loscombe.	16	that's something I consider.
17	MR. LOSCOMBE: Yes.	17	But I sat here, as I said and I
18	MS. MARCIANO: Mr. Joyce.	18	listened, and I believe all honesty he is

4	MR. MCGOFF: I'd just like to say I	3 4	MS. MARCIANO: Mr. Rogan.
5	think there is still some uncertainty about	5	MR. ROGAN: No.

11	MR. ROGAN: I would echo what	11	MS. EVANS: Yes. I hereby declare
12	Mr. McGoff said. I don't think anyone touts	12	Item 7-B legally and lawfully adopted.

17	this is approved by city council and at the	17	adjourned.
18	end of the day I usually try to base my vote	18
19	on what's best for the community and we all	19
20	know the residents in this neighborhood and	20
21	the bulk of them I talked to were against	21

25	100	25
1	MS. EVANS: I'll just add quickly to
2	that that surrounding this particular
3	business are bars and beer distributors so
4	if that is the intention of this business I
5	don't know that it would be very successful
6	just, you know, based on those
7	circumstances. The CEO insists that the
8	purpose is not for the sales of six-packs,
9	etcetera, and I do believe that he has
10	established a very productive
11	well-maintained business that has
12 13	encountered very few if any problems over the past three years.
13	I, too, spoke with some residents
14	and one was concerned about the transfer of
16	the liquor license, the other two basically
17	had no concern. They really didn't care
18	whether the license would be granted or not
19	because they said the business has never
20	been a problem for them and so I would just
21	ask, as I did during the public caucus, that
22	Mr. Fadden would reach out to those in the
23	neighborhood to alleviate their concerns and
24	I will be voting to approve it. Is there
25	anyone else on the question? Roll call,
