NEWS FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SCRANTON, PA – During this public health crisis, Mayor Cignetti urges residents to heed the warnings of the medical community and implement best practices for social distancing. The City of Scranton remains in a State of Emergency, with police, fire and public works operating to protect the safety and health of Scranton residents.

Mayor Cignetti will hold a press conference on the City Hall steps on Friday, March 20 at 2 p.m. to provide updates regarding City services and resources available to residents, including a Virtual Job Fair on the City's website. (Please see attached for a list of resources already available)

Please continue to check our FB page, Mayor of Scranton, or visit our website, www.scrantonpa.gov for updates.

Stay home, stay safe, stay calm.
