PRESS RELEASE

Mayor Courtright Announces Mayor's Business Recognition Series

(Scranton, Pennsylvania) – Mayor William Courtright announced that the City of Scranton has established the Mayor's Business Recognition Series to acknowledge Scranton businesses and their various contributions to this community.

"2015 was a year of progress for the City of Scranton and now in 2016 not only can we look back with pride on our City's 150 years of great innovation, resilience, and accomplishment but look towards the future of our City by giving businesses in Scranton the opportunity to share their story with the community and highlight their economic and social contributions."

"One of the things I enjoy most about my job as Mayor is to recognize those people who have put down roots, raised a family, started a business, and invested in this community."

Businesses and/or nominations from third parties are asked to contact the Office of Economic and Community Development (OECD) for further details on how a local business may be recognized or visit the City's website for more information at www.scrantonpa.gov.
